

Julie Jackmides Mack

Julie Jakmides Mack is a lifelong resident of Stark County. Julie grew up in Alliance, attending parochial school from kindergarten through graduation from St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Louisville. Julie earned her BA from the University of Mount Union, and her JD from the University of Akron School of Law. Julie is an attorney working in private practice with her father, Attorney Jeffrey Jakmides, and their office is in Alliance. While she focuses on family law and criminal defense, Julie handles a wide range of personal injury, civil, estate planning, property, and business legal needs. She enjoys being in the courtroom.

Julie is also a member of the Board of Trustees for Leadership Stark County. She served almost four terms on Alliance City Council as a Councilwoman At-Large (2012-2016) before resigning when she married and moved from Alliance to Canton.

Julie and her husband Edmond Mack are the parents of Evelyn, who started at Canton Montessori in June 2020 in the Garden Room. Evelyn has an older half-sister who attends North Canton St. Paul's. The Mack family lives nearby CMS in Ridgewood and loves the close proximity to the school.
